Intern, International Tax | CHI004338

Description

The International Tax Group is looking for 2 interns to assist in the U.S. international tax compliance process and with various U.S. and foreign research projects. The interns will prepare U.S. international tax forms (i.e., Forms 5471, Forms 8858, etc.) using RIA OneSource and corresponding workpapers using Excel. The interns will also research U.S. and certain foreign tax technical issues and write brief memoranda to document conclusions.

We are looking to hire interns that are available to work part time throughout the year, with the ability to work increased hours from April to August as needed. Our ideal candidate is recent university graduate with a major in Accounting or Tax, or someone currently enrolled in or recently graduated from an MST or LLM program. Actual part-time hours worked each week can be arranged to meet the needs of the candidate's schedule.

Project Deliverables/Objectives:

- Preparation of Forms 5471 and 8858 and corresponding work papers.
- Documentation of tax technical conclusions for issues researched in connection with the tax return preparation process.
